

business hub membership agreement

Markham Public Library's Business Hub provides a shared, community-driven space for small business owners, freelancers, and entrepreneurs. Our goal is to foster an environment that is dedicated to helping our members build and grow their business.

Your membership includes:

- Access to WiFi
- Use of meeting room
- Use of videoconferencing room
- Use of hot desks (these co-working desks are located in a public space. You can expect library users and staff to be in the space from time to time)
- Access to space during regular library hours (Monday to Thursday: 9:30 AM-9:00 PM , Friday: 9:30 AM-5:00 PM, Saturday: 9:00 AM-5:00 PM, Sunday: 1:00-5:00 PM)

Guidelines:

Markham Public Library's Business Hub is a shared, collaborative and open workspace. To create a productive and vibrant environment, we are relying on our members to:

- Be friendly! Meeting new people is part of the co-working experience, people can be a great resource to bounce ideas off.
- Be considerate and respectful: With a shared space it's important to be aware of others' needs when it comes to cleanliness, noise, etc.
- Adhere to all policies outlined in our Library Policies and Federal and Provincial legislation.

First year free offer: To be eligible for this offer, you must agree to provide Markham Public Library with consistent feedback about the services and space provided at our Business Hub. Feedback may happen in the form of surveys, focus groups or informal communication. Lack of adherence result in loss of privileges.

Please note that Markham Public Library reserves the right to change or update terms of use of equipment/space/services at any time.

By checking the box for "yes" on our Business Hub Member Sign-Up Form, you acknowledge receipt of, and have read and understood, all of the terms and conditions outlined above regarding your participation in and use of the Business Hub.
